Zi-Ming is currently serving as an Assistant Superintendent of Police in the Operations Department of the Singapore Police Force.

Outside the YMCA, Zi-Ming volunteers as an officer with the Boys' Brigade 82nd Singapore Company at Boon Lay Secondary School. He has previously served as President of the Imperial College Christian Union.

Mr Samuel Chan

Date of Birth: 24 December 1980

Church Affiliation: Bible-Presbyterian Church

Education:

Degree in Electrical Engineering summa cum laude,
Degree in Economics summa cum laude,
University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, USA

Occupation: Head of Indirect, Personal and Asset Taxes, Ministry of Finance

Volunteering experience with YMCA:

Volunteer mentor for Citi-YMCA Youth For Causes since 2005
Member of Citi-YMCA Youth For Causes Committee since 2005

Volunteering experience with other non-profit organisations:

Young Changemakers since 2005
Youth Reloaded Workgroup since 2004.

Samuel is currently serving as the Head of Indirect, Personal and Asset Taxes in the Ministry of Finance. As an officer responsible for tax policy, he has contributed to the advancement of Singapore's international, economic and social policy imperatives through tax levers. Samuel has also been keenly involved in the Budget formulation process, taking on roles such as the public communications head and most recently a speechwriter for the Minister for Finance.

As with other volunteers in the YMCA, Samuel juggles his work and personal life with dedicated time in the service of the YMCA. He started serving as a mentor in the Citibank-YMCA Youth For Causes Programme in 2005 and has not looked back since! Samuel is humbled and honoured to serve as a freshman Director on YMCA's Board, and endeavours to help YMCA grow from strength to strength as a Christian VWO with outreach to the community regardless of race, language or religion.

Samuel graduated summa cum laude with degrees in electrical engineering and economics from the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, USA.
