

Privacy Policy YMCA of Singapore

Protection of Personal Information

YMCA of Singapore collects your personal information in order to provide activities and services pertaining to your relationship with us as a member, volunteer, student, or guest. We are committed to maintaining the security and confidentiality of your personal information and will not share it with unrelated third parties.

You will be contacted periodically on activities or benefits available through YMCA. We will not send you promotional material from unrelated third parties.

For local and international community services, YMCA will share necessary data with our VWO partners, travel insurers, and logistics providers for coordination purposes.

Media

As we are a community-based organization, we often share photos or videos of YMCA activities over our newsletter and social media channels. If you attend a YMCA activity, your image may be taken in photos or videos of the event which will be retained and published by the organization.

Donors

To qualify you for tax deduction, we will register your donation and tax reference number (NRIC/FIN/UEN) with IRAS. We may also wish to acknowledge your donation through our events or public communications. If you do not wish your donation to be registered or publicly acknowledged, you may inform us in a note when you make the donation.

Queries?

If you have any queries on the privacy policy and how we use your personal data, you can address them to the Data Protection Officer at dataprotection@ymca.org.sg, or call the officer in charge at 65862208.
